

The
Missouri Council for History Education

Membership

Membership is open to all individuals interested in the mission of the Council. Its membership includes teachers, university faculty, government employees, students and other individuals interested in history.

The Missouri Council for History Education, in partnership with the National Council for History Education, offers membership in both organizations for the price of one. Use the form below to mail your $40.00 to the Missouri Council for History Education and you will automatically be a member of the NCHE, with full benefits from both organizations.

As a member of the Missouri Council for History Education, you will receive information pertaining to history education in the state. You can attend the annual state conference at the member rate. As a member of the National Council for History Education, you will receive the monthly publication, History Matters, discounts at Colonial Williamsburg, attendance at the NCHE annual meeting at the member rate, and other history publications as arranged by the NCHE Board of Directors.
